Bridgeport, Conn., October 20.—

Governor Cox, of Ohio, today sent a telegram to Elihu Root asking him to correct what the democratic candidate declared was a "false" statement in Mr. Root's address yesterday regarding the governor's position on the league of nations issue, the governor denied, Mr. Root's statement that he demands the league "just as Mr. Wilson negotiated it" and called upon Mr. Root for a retraction.

In making public his telegram to Mr. Root, Governor Cox issued a statement declaring that Mr. Root and thirty other prominent republicans signing the recent statement in behalf of Senator Harding, the republican nominee, were "attempting to deceive the voters because they are permitting their partisanship to rise above their patriotism and trusting perhaps that the last wobble of Senator Harding may be in their direction."

Governor Cox restated his proposal to accept any reservations "helpful" to the league, and contended, therefore, that Mr. Root had made a statement "which the records show is false."

Cox's Telegram.

The governor's telegram follows: "Elihu Root, New York City:

I have, heretofore, made a statement from your address on the league of nations delivered in New York city October 19, which reads: 'Mr. Cox declared that he will insist upon the treaty just as Mr. Wilson negotiated it.' I am addressing you most respectfully with recognition of your integrity of public matter and the signal service which you have rendered as a public man, mindful of the fact that you may have fallen into error through ignorance of the situation owing to your absence from the United States during a part of the presidential campaign."

Your statement, however, is not in comparing with the facts which you are assumed to know by perusal of the daily papers.

I have invariably stated in my addresses, and restate here, my whole-hearted desire to make the United States a member of the league of nations, and that, to secure that consummation of the purpose of America when she entered the war, I will accept reservations that will clarify, that will be helpful, and that will reassure the American people; and that, as far as I am able, I will clearly state to our associates in the league that congress, and congress alone, has the right to declare war, and that our constitution sets up limits in legislation or treaty making beyond which we cannot go.

To Accept Reservations.

I have stated further that I will accept reservations from any source which are offered in sincerity and with a desire to be helpful. I have also stated that if I am elected president, my election can be construed only as a mandate of the American people; and that to secure ratification of the treaty and the league, I would sit down with the members of the United States senate; I would confer with Mr. Wilson, and with you, Mr. Root, as well as with Judge Taft, and all others who have a sincere purpose and whose service in the past equips them especially as advisers in this work.

You know, and know full well, that Senator Harding very recently said: 'I am not interested in rejection.' As I have stated at the beginning I am placing a charitable construction upon your statement that perhaps your partisanship has prevented your reading my addresses and your prejudice has prevented you from realizing the situation from which you have made a candidate's statement concerning me which the records show is false, and I firmly and respectfully call upon you to correct this statement at once. Mr. Root, you have arrived at honorable station in life. Many peo-

ing to Governor Cox's charges of inconsistency on the league of nations issue, Senator Harding offered in a speech here today to "give a reward to anyone who would produce specific evidence of a change of position since he accepted the republican nomination for the presidency."

Mr. Harding also asserted that if he had no specific plan for a world association, the same was true of Governor Cox, who had not told the Versailles covenant he was willing to take.

"I do not believe in very much of the president's league," said the republican nominee. "And if the democratic candidate wants to regard this as my thirteenth change, I give him notice that I have one more yet to give him, because, you know, I am entitled to fourteen."

"But, as a matter of fact, I will give a reward to anyone in America who can take my utterances on world politics, from my speech of acceptance down to the speech I am making at this hour, and point out any inconsistency or change of position."

Against Wilson Covenant.

"I have said from the beginning that we would not have the Wilson covenant, and I say that to you now. But I have said repeatedly that America will gladly play her part in a suitable association of nations which does not involve the surrender of American sovereignty, which is built upon the ideals of justice, rather than force; and I say that again."

"I have not, of course, specified just how we would do it, because I am going to be called upon to make good. But, my countrymen, never, with Article 10, the heart of the league. That is a heart of steel under a heart of soul of justice for a better order in the world."

"I hope that does not leave you in any very great doubt. Let me ask you a question: Have you heard anyone who is insisting upon specific plans? Have you heard of any one who tells us they will take the Wilson league, with interpretations or reservations, and have you heard any of them, with their gibberish of tongue, tell you what reservations they are going to take? No, you haven't."

The senator's reference to the league was made in the course of a speech at a republican barbecue.

MISS BURGE HURT
WHEN WAGON HITS
HER AUTOMOBILE

Miss Margaret Burge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Burge, 208 Lucile avenue, who is county demonstration agent for Walton county, was seriously injured Monday near Monroe, when a team of horses, drawing a heavy wagon, ran into the automobile in which Miss Burge was sitting, according to news received in Atlanta Wednesday.

The car was at the foot of a steep hill and, when the runaway team, crashed into the automobile the machine was turned over. Miss Burge was knocked unconscious for several hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Burge immediately went to the bedside of their daughter. Word was received from them Wednesday night that, although Miss Burge is suffering a great deal from her injuries, physicians say that she is not permanently injured.

New Orleans, October 20.—In a statement prepared at the instance of the Cotton exchange directors and made public tonight, Henry G. Hester, secretary of the exchange and for fifty years regarded as an international authority on matters pertaining to cotton marketing, declared there is "no reason for rushing for federal financial aid" and asserted there was nothing in the matter with the south beyond an unreasoning scare in cotton.

The statement, prepared "for the benefit and encouragement of those who are not fully informed," follows: "The drastic decline, that has occurred in cotton since the first of August, amounting to nearly $80 a bale, or about 48 per cent, has been mainly due to the pressure to sell on a shrinking market, under-lying confidence for both sellers and consumers. In the past ten years of the farmer and industrialist's reluctance of the latter until they practically abandoned the market except at constant concessions, which in the aggregate probably constitute the greatest drop that has ever taken place in the staple in any like period. In the past ten weeks more than a million bales of spot cotton have literally been 'thrown overboard' without rhyme or reason. Nearly three-fourths of the Texas ginning to September 25 have been rushed to market and while other sections have sold more sparingly, the reports of three leading Texas centers having amounted to more than $90,000 bales. Futures have perforce followed spots, the pressure having been accentuated by sales to hedge spots."

Reasons for Scare.

"Various theories have been advanced for the 'scare,' mainly the question of financing, unfavorable attitude of the federal reserve bank, and tight money. Neither of these, however, should reasonably have precipitated a practical panic. Calm thinkers consider there was no more reason for rushing for federal aid than during the 'buy-a-bale' period of 1914. They argue, and justly so, that we marketed in part and carried over without outside aid the heavy remnant of the most stupendous crop produced in the history of the world in the face of a world-wide war and at a time that the south was infinitely poorer than at present. They knew then not only that cotton was selling many cents per pound below the cost of production, but that it was bringing less than its actual market value, even in face of adverse European war conditions and the promise of an abnormally large production (which finally proved to be 17,000,000 bales) and they knew that the panic could only be temporary. War or no war, the world needed our cotton and that if the channels of trade were blocked for a time, a way would be found to open them in the near future. And, what did we do? We marketed that year more than was ever marketed in any year in the history of our cotton. And if we did not get as much for our bales as we should have done, we laid the foundation for an upward trend that brought more money into the south, fairly earned, in the years that followed than had ever before been obtained in our history."

"Why, then, should we, after four seasons in which our raw cotton, including the seed, has exceeded in value seven billions, nine hundred and seventy millions of dollars, balk at carrying a few million bales pending a temporary lull in demand? Has not that very bill been lengthened by the senseless and unreasoning fears of producers? Of course, everybody knows that the governmental efforts to reduce the high cost of living have exercised some influence, but that has been by no means entirely responsible for the cotton panic."

Formation of a large export corporation composed of people of German birth to deal directly with cotton importers of Germany in handling the cotton crop of the south is now under way, following the conference Tuesday in Atlanta of Senators William J. Harris, Hoke Smith and members of the Georgia congressional delegation, at which the suggestion of Heinrich Charles, of New York, that such a financial institution be established "in the United States" was approved.

The German market has been closed to cotton imports on account of financial conditions. Mr. Charles stated in his letter to Senator Smith suggesting the formation of an export corporation. "Before the war, Germany imported more than two million bales of cotton; but during last year she only imported about 300,000 bales," the letter read.

That the present serious financial situation in the south is caused by the fact the German market is still closed to cotton imports is the opinion of the New York financier, who has just returned from a year's sojourn in Germany, where he conferred with a large number of cotton importers and various credit associations that have been formed for the purpose of acquiring raw material.

In Excellent Condition.

These associations, Mr. Charles stated, are in excellent condition, ready to begin business operations, and "all they need is a connection with a similar institution in the United States." Also, it is fact that many American citizens of German birth and descent are willing to help financially their mother country and would be willing to subscribe to long time credit with this end in view.

These citizens, it is declared, "are very anxious to start such a financial institution, but they need a financial institution to start such a financial institution."

Declaring that many business men are expressing the opinion that the time is ripe for another world's exposition and that Atlanta is the logical place for this great fair, Councilman R. A. Gordon will introduce at the adjourned session of city council this afternoon a resolution asking that body's indorsement of the movement.

Council will be asked to request appointment by the mayor of five members from general council to comprise a special committee of which he will be ex-officio member, to confer with similar committees from the business and civic bodies, taking up with these organizations the decision as to whether Atlanta shall begin such a movement for a world's fair in 1925, or some other suitable year in the near future.

To join in discussing the proposed event, the resolution will ask that the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, the Atlanta Merchants' association, the Atlanta Clearing House association and other bodies, be requested to name committees of five members each, and the three daily newspapers one representative each.

Are Well Attended.

Eyes of the world have never been centered on a southern city as the seat of an international exposition, the three which have been held in the United States going to north-

Washington, October 20.—A group of bankers attending the national convention here of the American Bankers' association decided tonight to ask President Wilson to recreate the war finance corporation to aid in exporting cotton, wheat and other agricultural products. The action was taken after Eugene Meyer, Jr., formerly managing director of the corporation, had explained the funds of the corporation still were available should its powers be restored.

R. F. Maddox, Atlanta, Peter W. Goebel, Kansas City, E. B. Haselwood, Chicago, D. M. Armstrong, Memphis; George R. James, Memphis; Walter M. Head, Omaha; R. S. Hecht, New Orleans, and P. H. Johnston, New York, signed the call. The resolution provides for a direct appeal to the president and was adopted unanimously.

Washington, October 20.—While a survey of the financial policies of the government, by Secretary Houston, drew the attention of delegates today at the general session of the American Bankers' association convention, the bankers, in their section meeting which followed, brought administration of the federal reserve system under fire. They adopted resolutions "condemning and deprecating methods employed by the board" in its relations with state banks which are not members of the reserve system, although the board did not lack defenders during the discussion.

Indignation against the board's regulation compelling the collection of checks and remittance of the face amount at par was freely expressed. Governor Harding was styled as "usurper" of authority and a committee was named to seek and demand the restoration of the right of banks to issue their own currency, to "guarantee to all bankers the rights and privileges" of fixing their own rates.

Georgia Counties in Sending Campaign Contributions

Butts and Wilkes led the counties of Georgia with $86 and $44, respectively, in Wednesday's daily reports of contributions to the national democratic campaign fund sent to Finance Chairman C. J. Haden, of Atlanta, as the drive entered the last lap to place this state in the lead over others of the south to elect Cox and Roosevelt.

Enthusiasm, pride in the democratic party and a spirit of rivalry were now combined. Mr. Haden stated last night to give all Georgia can afford to aid "Jimmy" Cox and Franklin Roosevelt defeat Harding and Coolidge for the presidency and vice presidency of the United States. The drive is progressing rapidly and the united effort of party leaders is being made to raise the largest possible amount of money possible during the next ten days to send to national headquarters.

Twitty Added to Force.

F. S. Twitty, formerly mayor of Dublin, Ga., and recently connected with the national headquarters as one of the compilers of the 400-page campaign handbook used by the democratic forces in every section of the country, has been added to the Georgia staff of campaign work-

As a step toward remedying the fuel situation, a curtailment of coal exports was urged in telegrams sent Wednesday night by Senator William J. Harris to the Interstate commerce commission, the federal trade commission, and the department of justice at Washington. The dispatches insisted that immediate relief of the present coal situation in Atlanta is necessary.

Senator Harris took this step immediately after a conference at the Ansley hotel with a committee representing the Atlanta Federation of Trades, consisting of W. C. Caraway, Jerome Jones and Emmett Quinn. It was announced that the committee has arranged to hold conferences on the coal situation with Senator Harris from time to time until relief is in sight.

Called on District Attorney.

After leaving Senator Harris, the labor committee called at the office of Hooper Alexander, United States district attorney, for a brief conference on the coal shortage and alleged profiteering in coal. It was learned at the office of the district attorney that he is in constant communication with federal officials in the coal sections of Kentucky, Tennessee and Alabama, in an effort to ascertain whether or not there is profiteering at the mines.

While I am not prepared to agree that the percentage of profits charged by Atlanta retailers is proper, and shall insist at the proper time and in a proper way upon a reduction of this percentage, I am prepared to say that the dealers here are certainly paying too much at the mines," said the district attorney. "I have definite information today of sales to Atlanta dealers, running all the way from $5 to $11.50 a ton, the mines in Tennessee and Kentucky, and the evidence seems to indicate unjustifiable padding of prices by resales and otherwise."

At the same time, I have seen today circulars quoting run of mine coal at $11.50 a ton.

TODAY'S FAIR FEATURES.

Today has been designated as Governor's, Women's, Boys' and Girls' Club day at the Southeastern fair. Swine judging will be completed in the Berkshire classes and begun in the O. L. C.'s and Chester White classes. Cattle and agricultural judging has been completed. Poultry and liberal arts judging will be continued.

The Southern Bankers' association will entertain at the Capital City club at 8 o'clock this evening visitors to the fair. The fair association will tender a banquet to the horsemen at Cason fair grounds cafe.

The 1920 Southeastern fair will be known long after its turn of time as a record breaker for admissions and the reverberation of the tread of countless feet in its buildings has died to an echo of memory as the record which broke all records previously established in the south for crowds, entries and enthusiasm.

Even before all the money bags have yielded in detail their secrets, the fair officials estimate that Wednesday will go down in history as a record-breaking day for admissions, more than doubled the attendance of the same day last year and surpassed all records of the past.

The opening day, Saturday last, went far beyond the first day of years gone by. The attendance is at present approximately 25,000 ahead, compared with the figures of 1919. Other records which have suffered in contrast with this year are the total number of entries in the various shows, which is the second largest show of its kind in the United States; the rabbit show, which is the biggest ever staged in the south, and many classes of the cattle exhibit which surpassed all previous records in numbers and quality.

On Wednesday the feature of the day was the appearance of "Arion Guy" upon the Lakewood track, who has been one of the biggest money winners of the year and the victor of the greatest race in the country, the Kentucky futurity. "Arion Guy" has his mile in 2:10.4 Wednesday. He was also winner of the Western Horsemen's stakes at Indianapolis. Another red letter event on the program was the banquet given the southeastern horsemen by the fair officials in the afternoon, where the comprehensive and intelligent work being done for breeders by the fair was discussed.

Club Judging Contest.

The International Club Judging of live stock is progressing rapidly to a close and results will be announced late today as to the fortunate team of boys to make the trip to Europe. Judging in all departments has been carried forward with great speed and will probably be completed on Friday. Only a few classes of swine, poultry and certain departments of liberal arts remain unfinished.

Likewise the boys' fair school is in full swing, with more than 200 Georgia youngsters taking instruction in agriculture, animal husbandry and kindred arts. Governor Dorey delivered an address before the school Wednesday morning, speaking on "Georgia's Potential Resources." The fair school is an annual event staged by the Southeastern fair association for the benefit of the rising generation of Georgians. Boys from the various counties of the state are selected by the fair association to receive a competitive examination. They receive free transportation to the fair and are quartered in a big camp near the lake under the supervision of Roland L. Shinn, assistant executive of the boy scouts of Atlanta.

The midway of Larkland claimed its usual throng on Wednesday when it proved to be as popular as "Children's Day." The crowds were so thick towards evening that waiting lines formed before the shows and patience became a requisite of the pleasure-seekers as well as endurance.

Frank McDonald, who has been on trial since Tuesday on a charge of murder as the result of an automobile accident which cost Mrs. Carabel Holley Smith her life on September 25, was found guilty of involuntary manslaughter by a jury in the criminal division of the Fulton superior court Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock, and he was given an indeterminate sentence of from one to three years. Judge John D. Humphries, before whom the case was tried, made the verdict of the jury the order of the court. The sentence given the defendant by the jury is the maximum penalty under the law for involuntary manslaughter. The law allows the jury to fix the penalty from one to three years in such cases.

After Prosecution.

Attorneys for the defense announced Wednesday night that they will hold a conference Thursday and decide whether they will make a motion for a new trial. The sentence given the defendant by the jury is the maximum penalty under the law for involuntary manslaughter. The law allows the jury to fix the penalty from one to three years in such cases.

The case has also created much interest on account of the prominence of Mrs. Smith, and the fact that McDonald on a former occasion was charged with stabbing a man to death and was tried and convicted of manslaughter in the court. The court of appeals allowed him a new trial on a technical error, and on account of the death of one of the state's witnesses and the removal from the state of others McDonald was never brought to trial in the stabbing case the second time.

Calls for Death Sentence.

Solicitor John A. Boykin, who made the closing arguments for the state Wednesday, asked the jury to give the defendant the death sentence. He said that the only way to stop the speed mania that has caused the death of a number of Atlantans recently is to enforce the law and give the maximum penalty to cases where great disregard for human life and flagrant violations of state and city traffic laws are shown. LIVATABS ONLY ONES THAT HAVEN'T FAILED

Augusta Woman Has Tried Many Other Liver Medicines—They Have Failed—Livatabs Are the Best—They Do the Work—Do Not Pain—Contain No Calomel—Can't Salivate Or Nauseate—Read Her Letter.

Without changing a word we reprint the letter of a well known Augusta woman, who is an enthusiastic user of Livatabs. Read it:

"As a liver medicine 'Livatabs' are the best, they never fail to do the work and do not pain the least. I have taken them as much as anybody and I can not find one fault in them whatever. I have tried a dozen other liver medicines but they have failed in many respects.

"I have had people to ask me if I know of a good liver medicine. I always tell them of the Livatabs and my long experience with them, and they always get the same results and say they are the best and wish they had known of them long ago. They really are the best. I just can't tell in a letter all the reason why I know it."

Livatabs work gently and efficiently. They are so mild that you can give them to children without danger. They do not sicken or force you to lay about the day after you use them. Livatabs are absolutely guaranteed. If you are not satisfied with the results, your druggist is authorized to refund your money on return of the package.

PREPARE M'PHERSON FOR FOURTH CORPS

Movement From Charleston to Atlanta Will Begin November 6.

Beginning about November 6, the Fourth Corps Area, now stationed at Charleston, S. C., will remove to Atlanta to make this city headquarters for all the Dixie states except Texas and Virginia. The movement, it is expected, will be completed by November 15.

Preliminary to the removal of the organization from the Carolina coast city to Atlanta, Colonel L. H. Bash, quartermaster, has arrived here and in addition to making other arrangements, Colonel Bash is devoting his attention to home-seeking for the members of the clerical force of the department. Coming here with the Fourth Corps Area, which before the world war, was known as the Southeastern department, will be about fifty officers and a clerical force of 150 men.

The officers, with their families, it is declared, can be accommodated at the post, but homes will have to be found for the civilian members who, with their families, will become permanent residents of Atlanta. The members of the clerical force, it is stated, are not subject to removal, and exchange of posts as are the army officers, and those who come to Atlanta with the Fourth Area will, of course, seek as soon as practicable, to become permanent citizens of Atlanta. These men, it was declared by Colonel Bash, are high classed citizens, who draw good pay and who will become assimilated into Atlanta life as soon as possible, taking their places among other Atlantans, sending their children to the public schools and becoming home owners or high-grade tenants.

The arrival of the corps here will add 150, or more, fine families to the social, industrial and business life of the city. It is important that homes be found for the civilian personnel of the department, and Colonel Bash asks the co-operation of the real estate and business men of the city to aid in making possible the way to secure homes for the working force of the corps.

The location of the headquarters of the Fourth Corps Area, in Atlanta, with jurisdiction over all the southern states, except the two mentioned above, insures the maintenance of a military post, which may or may not be enlarged, in addition to the fine new lecture hall, who were among the first to experiment with radiotelegraphy.

JERE WELLS IS HEAD OF FULTON TEACHERS

The Fulton County Teachers' association began its second year's work with an enthusiastic meeting on last Saturday. The association proposes this year to include in its program a study of many needed juvenile reforms as well as progressive measures for the teachers.

The officers elected for this year are as follows: Jere Wells, president; Mrs. B. D. Manston, vice president; Miss Lucy Johnson, secretary and treasurer.

A call meeting of the association will be held at the courthouse Saturday morning, October 30, at the conclusion of normal class for the purpose of announcing committees and further formulation of plans.

at $5.50 in Kentucky and I have unquestionable evidence of recent sales as low as $3.55 at Alabama mines for best block coal. These conditions indicate profiteering at the mines, and I am communicating the facts to the proper district attorneys for the mine districts, in the hope that relief can be afforded there."

Review of Situation.

A complete review of the local fuel situation was submitted by Mr. Alexander Wednesday to Attorney General Palmer's office.

Upon the receipt from Washington of a copy of service order No. 21, which prohibits municipalities from storing coal for later sale to the general public, the tentative plan of Mayor Key to purchase 100 cars of coal and resell it to local citizens was killed. The order provides that no city government, public service corporation, hospital, or organization of any kind, may purchase coal in excess of its reasonable requirements for current operating use.

It was stated in dispatches to Mayor Key from Washington Wednesday that priority shipments of coal can be granted Atlanta, but that a permit for each carload shipped here will have to be secured from the interstate commerce commission. It was stated that the priority shipments are obtained, the city will receive a sufficient quantity of coal during an emergency.

Committee Is Planned.

Jerome Jones, one of the leaders of the movement launched by the Atlanta Federation of Coal Producers to bring about a reduction of coal prices, said that his committee was much pleased with the activity manifested by the district attorney in the matter. He reiterated that the federation is seeking relief from a situation that has faced Atlanta from winter to winter, and that the sole purpose of the efforts of Atlanta labor is to benefit the city.

Senator Harris told a Constitution representative that he was convinced that coal prices here are excessive, and that he intended to co-operate with the federation and with the proper federal officials until satisfactory results are obtained.

COAL BIN BLAZES WERE INCENDIARY. BELIEVE OFFICERS

That fires in which two coal bins, containing a total of about eleven tons of coal were destroyed early Wednesday morning, are of incendiary origin is believed by members of the city detective bureau.

The coal house of J. L. Townsend, in rear of 8 Hope street, was burned early in the morning. After extinguishing the fire on the fence by means of a hose which they secured nearby, Officers Henry and McWilliams summoned the fire department. The same officers shortly afterward discovered a coal house belonging to Harry Little, colored, 38 Hubbard street, on fire, and before the arrival of the fire department about four tons of coal were destroyed.

THE NEXT TIME YOU HAVE A COLD

Try Gowan's, the Original Penetrating Salve That Reaches the Seat of the Trouble Directly Through Penetration.

Fine for Croupy Babies—Produces Rubefacient Effect Without Irritating—Breaks Up the Congested Blood Vessels and Will Not Stain the Clothing.

Any physician will tell you that, in the treatment of colds, spasmodic croup, or any inflammation of the air passages, an external remedy that will penetrate is very effective. Crude petroleum has no penetrating qualities, and that is why an animal fat base is used in the Gowan preparation, and the reason why Gowan's will and does actually penetrate, bringing about immediate relief.

Gowan's, the original penetrating salve, gives relief beyond belief, it goes right in, soothes and heals the inflamed membranes, opens up the air passages for free and easy breathing and breaks up the cold. It will not stain the clothing, and being used externally, will not upset the stomach.

Gowan's is especially fine for babies and children, as it produces a rubefacient effect without irritating or blistering. It has many daily uses in the home and should be kept on hand for emergencies, such as cuts, burns, bruises, insect bites, etc. 30c, 60c and $1.20 at your druggist, and guaranteed to please or money refunded.

gained by Georgia breeders during the early part of the week is being maintained through the final judg-ings. The awards on cattle were completed Wednesday. Of the major prizes eleven in the Hereford classes were awarded to E. E. Mack & Son, of Thomaston. In Jersey classes fourteen blues were awarded to Thomaston Livestock company, of Thomaston; in the Polled Short Horn classes the majority of the prizes went to Indiana and Tennessee breeders. In the fat-tailed classes Georgia again came into her own. E. E. Mack & Son taking the larger number of ribbons. Kentucky and Tennessee sent the only exhibits of Aberdeen-Angus. In the Short Horn classes Tennessee and North Carolina were the only states represented. The only interest shown in the Yorkshire ring was on the part of New Jersey breeders. Georgia and South Carolina divided honors in the Guernsey exhibits. Judging of swine, which has been only partially completed, reveals a slight lead in favor of Georgia and Kentucky breeders, with Florida running a close second. Today will be devoted to the judging of O. I. C.'s, Chester Whites and Berkshires. Ralph Jenkins and J. C. Wade will officiate in the judging ring.

A Suggestion

To our out-of-town Customers and Friends: When you come to the Southeastern Fair, October 16 to 26, or any other time on business, and need glasses or our advice, come to us direct on arrival. Do not put it off until the last thing, as we positively refuse to sell you glasses unless we have sufficient time to test your eyes as they should be. This is absolutely necessary in order to give you satisfaction, and for us to retain our reputation. Our service is worth all you pay for it. Ask any one who has tried it.

McELWAIN SHOES

Thirty-five thousand men and boys will save money on shoes today

THIS will happen today; it happens every business day in the year.

Thirty-five thousand men and boys will walk into the stores of leading independent shoe merchants; some will ask for McElwain Shoes; some will ask merely for "the best shoes you have at a medium price" and will be sold McElwain Shoes.

And everyone of those thirty-five thousand men and boys will save money.

The reason why they will save money, why you will save money by asking for McElwain Shoes, is told in the Saturday Evening Post this week, in the double page advertisement reproduced above.

In less than five minutes you can read this advertisement and memorize the McElwain name. And those five minutes will pay you dividends every year of your life, on every pair of shoes you buy.

years and is recognized as an authority upon the subject. Georgia, Florida, South and North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, Minnesota and Alabama are represented by more than four hundred rabbits. Georgia has taken the majority of the major prizes.

Judging in the Palace of Agriculture was completed on Wednesday. First place as the best county agricultural exhibit was won by Montgomery county, Alabama, and Bartow county, Georgia, received second place. Third was awarded to Haywood county, North Carolina. Mrs. C. A. Parson, of Rome, Ala., won first prize for the best individual agricultural exhibit, while second went to J. Reeves, Noland, of Waynesville, N. C. G. C. Crutchfield, of Vineville, Ala., won third place. The judge was D. W. Watkins, of Clemson college.

Dinner to Horsemen.

Among the social events of fair week will be the dinner given to the horsemen present by President H. G. Hastings and the board of directors at 8 o'clock this evening at the Cason cafe, upon the fair grounds. G. W. Dickinson, secretary of the Michigan State fair, and Mrs. Dickinson, who are the guests of the fair association, will attend the dinner. Mr. Dickinson has expressed himself in most complimentary terms regarding the Southeastern fair.

Summary of Tuesday's cattle awards follows:

In the Jersey classes the Thomaston Live Stock company of Thomaston, Ga., was awarded 14 blues; Mansfield Hall Farms of Fredericksburg, Va., 12; Meadow Farm, Greensboro, Ga., 5; S. S. Tiplin, Acworth, Ga., 8, and Rockdale Farm, Acworth, 1.

In the Hereford classes, E. E. Mack and Son, of Thomaston, was awarded 11 blue ribbons; A. J. A. Alexander, of Spring Station, Woodford county, Ky., 2; Hill, of Roundhead, Ohio, 4; James B. Smith, of Mayfield, Tenn., 3, and W. A. Pickering, of Kansas City.

Awards made in the various departments Wednesday, as indicated, are published in numerical order.

Dare-Devil Aviator Is Injured in Leap At Augusta Fair

Augusta, Ga., October 20.—(Special.)—Lieutenant George Wright, dare-devil aviator, who has been doing aerial acrobatics at the Southern Exposition fair, was injured severely today when landing after his leap from the plane in a parachute.

DO YOU KNOW WHAT IS THE MATTER?

When You Feel Out of Sorts and See Things With a Dull Eye

LOOK TO YOUR BLOOD

Pale Complexions, Languid Feelings, Lowered Vitality, Need More Red Blood. Take Pepto-Mangan

So many people spend week after week feeling down and out. They never stop to think that something really is the matter. They satisfy themselves by saying, "Oh, I'm not sick. I'll be all right tomorrow."

And tomorrow comes again and again. Still they feel depressed and languid, scarcely able to get around. If you don't feel like yourself, you are not yourself. If you are weak and pale, your blood needs strengthening. You should know about Pepto-Mangan, that famous blood tonic. Physicians recommend it and prescribe it because it contains just the ingredients needed to make red blood. It renews your energy, puts you where you ought to be. Begin with it today. Get the tablets if they will be more convenient to take than the liquid. Both have the same medicinal properties. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Ask for "Gude's" and be sure that the full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," is on the package—(adv.)

BUILDING TRUST PROBE IS STARTED

Untermeyer Claims New York Associations Throttle Competition by Putting Bids Through Clearing House.

New York, October 20.—Attempt to show that master plumbers, stone cutters and steam heating and ventilating contractors in greater New York have an "unlawful scheme to throttle competition" was made here today by Samuel Untermeyer at the opening of the joint legislative investigation of the alleged building materials trust.

Mr. Untermeyer said he expected to develop evidence that would show that these contractors had "associations" and operated under a "code of practices" by which bids were put through a "central clearing house."

John P. Hettrick, attorney for the associations, was subjected to a severe cross-examination regarding this alleged "code."

The witness testified that he had realized from one to three per cent on millions of dollars of contracts that had passed through his office. This money was paid him for furnishing "insurance against mistakes," he said.

He witness admitted that a system of colored cards was used.

When Mr. Untermeyer produced a stack of index cards, the witness recognized them and exclaimed: "My mail has been robbed down at my office. If you are using any of my cards, it is my duty to warn you. I hope nobody that robbed the United States mail has turned anything over to you."

"I don't know how they got here," said Mr. Untermeyer, "but you will agree with me that they are significant."

Mr. Hettrick resented any reference to the groups of contractors as "associations," expressing the desire that they be recorded as his clients.

Mr. Untermeyer said he would develop evidence to show that they are "associations" and that many members have resigned during the last few weeks when they heard "things were stirring."

WHILE POSSE HUNTS, POLICE ARREST NEGRO

Anniston, Ala., October 20.—(Special.)—While a posse of angry citizens of Weaver Station were searching for Naron Kirkland, a negro wanted for alleged insults to a young lady in that community, Kirkland was arrested by police on Fifteenth street, in this city, and was lodged in jail. The negro had disappeared from Weaver immediately after the young woman had been insulted two weeks ago. Tuesday it was reported that he had returned to the Weaver community and citizens started out to find him. His arrest in Anniston is believed to have prevented a threatened lynching.

SECRETARIES NAMED BY METHODIST BOARD

Chicago, October 20.—Dr. R. J. Wall, corresponding secretary of the council of boards of benevolence of the Methodist Episcopal church, today announced the following appointments:

Rev. Jesse Bogue, of Indianapolis, Ind., as area secretary. With headquarters at Indianapolis; Rev. B. M. Martin, pastor at Knoxville, Tenn., as secretary of the Chattanooga area, at Chattanooga; Rev. J. E. Jenkins, of Mitchell, S. D., as secretary of St. Paul area, at St. Paul, and Rev. Luther E. Loveloy, of Detroit, as director of stewardship of the centenary conservation committee, at Chicago.

Five bishops, general secretaries of all the Methodist boards and clergymen representing 4,755,602 members of the church, are attending the executive meeting of the council here, planning the program of the centenary fund of $115,000,000.

LANDSLIDE FOR G. O. P. PREDICTED BY HAYS

Claims Democrats Are Now Busy "Trading Cox to Save Senators."

New York, October 20.—Will H. Hays, republican national chairman, today stated that in many normally democratic states democrats had given up hope of electing Cox and Roosevelt and are now busy "trading Candidate Cox to try to save their senators."

Mr. Hays arrived here today from Chicago, bringing with him the prediction that every state west of the Mississippi would poll a Harding majority, with the possible exception of Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana.

Of states south of the Mason-Dixon line, Mr. Hays said in a formal statement the republican ticket would carry Maryland, Tennessee, Kentucky, West Virginia and possibly North Carolina. The "solid south," with three exceptions, and the three western states were all in which Mr. Hays would concede that democratic chances seemed better than republican.

He said there was no doubt of the attitude of the fallway men and transport workers, who are debating with some caution the question of throwing their active strength to the support of the striking miners. They arrived at no decision Wednesday, but a conference of the triple alliance on Thursday, probably will settle definitely the question of a sympathetic strike.

MAIL CARRIER BURNS POLITICAL SPEECHES

Chicago, October 20.—George Klatt, aged 21, a mail carrier, was arrested today and turned over to federal authorities, charged with burning political matter sent through the mails "because it made his pack too heavy." Klatt was arrested in the basement of a schoolhouse, where he was found stuffing speeches of Congressman Rainey into the furnace.

ENGLISH MINERS WILL NOT RECEDE

Both Sides Protest Willingness to Re-Enter Negotiations, But Neither Yields a Point.

BY A. E. JOHNSON.

United News Staff Correspondent.

London, October 20.—The coal strike is still in the stage of absolute deadlock, in spite of the announcements from both sides of a readiness "to re-enter negotiations."

A day of conferences failed to bring anything further than reiteration of the miners' determination to stand on their original demands, followed by announcement that the government could offer no further concession.

Of greatest concern, however, is the attitude of the fallway men and transport workers, who are debating with some caution the question of throwing their active strength to the support of the striking miners. They arrived at no decision Wednesday, but a conference of the triple alliance on Thursday, probably will settle definitely the question of a sympathetic strike.

States skwinthl ET AOOat

As the matter stands now, both sides are growing firmer—at least as far as public pronouncements go—and the chances for a settlement, to close observers, seem very remote.

Half a dozen conferences were held during the day by committees representing the miners and the other members of the triple alliance. Labor members of parliament and government officials concerned in the strike also held innumerable conferences, all without actual results in bringing a solution any nearer.

The railway men and transport workers are proceeding cautiously. They realize that to throw their weight actively to the miners means the beginning of an economic war such as has never been approached in the history of England. Radicals are inclined to order the sympathetic strike and thus force the government's hand at the outset, without waiting for further negotiations which may or may not materialize.

Both miners and government members sought throughout the day to use Tuesday night's debate as a lever for the re-opening of joint conferences, endeavoring to harmonize Sir Robert Horn's and Brace's suggestions for a rehearing with Lloyd-George's flat statement that the government's position was unchanged and would not be changed. It was intimated, from the government side, that although the government was anxious for a settlement of the questions, this must not be interpreted as meaning that "negotiation is capitulation." The miners, it was said, must realize that any settlement that is made must be a permanent and not a temporary solution.

Thomas and Ashton, labor leaders, speaking at Manchester in behalf of the miners, declared that if the government would agree to a conference at once, the miners would give the guarantee of production asked by Lloyd-George.

Retail Food Price Fell Two Per Cent During September

Rate of Decrease in Atlanta Equals General Average, According to Labor Bureau Statistics.

Washington, October 20.—The decline in the retail price of foodstuffs during September was placed at 2 per cent by the department of labor's bureau of labor statistics in its monthly report today on food costs.

Some foodstuffs, notably potatoes and sugar, sustained a marked decrease in price while others, including such commodities as eggs, pork chops and oranges, underwent price increases ranging from 8 per cent for oranges to 12 per cent for eggs. The drop in price of potatoes was placed at 22 per cent; sugar 20 per cent; cabbage 14 per cent and coffee 6 per cent.

The decline in retail food prices, however, according to the bureau's figures, did not keep pace with the drop in wholesale quotations. The latter were placed at 8 per cent as compared with the 2 per cent decrease in the retailers' prices to the consumer.

Not all of the 51 leading cities of the country shared alike in the retail price decline, the drop being estimated at 6 per cent in Butte, Mont., while it was less than five-tenths of 1 per cent in Boston, Los Angeles, Minneapolis, Omaha, Pittsburgh and Washington, D. C. Decreases of 3 per cent were reported from Charleston, S. C., Jacksonville, Little Rock, Milwaukee,

New Orleans and Scranton. The decline was estimated at 2 per cent in Atlanta, Baltimore, Buffalo, Columbus, Ohio; Dallas, Denver, Indianapolis, Louisville, Manchester, N. H.; Memphis, Mobile, Peoria, Portland, Maine; Richmond, Rochester, St. Louis, Salt Lake City and Springfield, Ill., and at 1 per cent in Birmingham, Bridgeport, Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Detroit, Fall River, Houston, Kansas City, Newark, New Haven, New York, Norfolk, Philadelphia, Portland, Ore.; Providence, St. Paul, Savannah and Seattle.

Permanent Headquarters Are Soon To Be Announced

BOY SCOUTS DOING EXCELLENT WORK DURING THE FAIR

Two hundred and fifty Boy Scouts did splendid work at the fair Tuesday and Wednesday, caring for the lost and administering first aid to hard knocks and bruises of the little ones.

When closing time arrived Tuesday night, scout headquarters at the fair discovered that fifteen children had not been called for by their attendants, so the youngsters were questioned as to their homes and scouts started out to deliver their charges.

In some instances the kids resisted manfully the attention of the scouts, distrusting their intentions, and many a wild chase ensued before the stray one could be corralled preparatory to his identification. In all, 111 lost children were found.

The quick work of Scouts Jack Tracy and William Elias in tending Mrs. Windsor, who suffered a sprained ankle, was a splendid example of the boys' efficient training and readiness to assist others.

The scouts will maintain their headquarters and continue on duty through the afternoons and nights for the duration of the fair. On Saturday they will be on duty all day.

Scout headquarters is at the main gate, and information is gladly given.

800 New Officers Assigned to Study At Camp Benning

In addition to the student officers now at Camp Benning at Columbus, Ga., 800 additional officers have been ordered to report between October 14 and October 28, for the purpose of taking the course of instruction there. This will mean the concentration at Camp Benning of the largest body of student officers ever assembled in peace time in the history of our country.

The courses of study will embody the tactical principles worked out in the A. E. F. during the war, and will make possible a standardization and uniformity of tactical training heretofore impossible in our army.

Lieutenant Furman W. Hardee, Sixty-first infantry, on duty with the recruiting service in the Transportation building, has been designated by the war department as one of the officers to take the new course this year, and has left Atlanta for Camp Benning. First Lieutenant William E. Kepner, Sixty-first infantry, has been selected by Major General John L. Hines, commanding the Fifth division, to replace Lieutenant Hardee on recruiting duty.

HUNTING SQUIRRELS, MAN KILLS CATAMOUNT

Macon, Ga., October 20.—(Special.) While hunting squirrels a short distance below Macon today Guy Ampoker, a local barber, shot and killed an unusually large catamount. The hunter got within a few feet of the animal before he saw him and before the catamount was aware of his presence he put a load of shot into the cat's head and later brought the carcass to the city to have it mounted.

Several bears have been killed in the swamps near Macon in the last few years, but this is the first catamount reported in several years. The animal measured four feet ten inches from tip to tip.

A final plea for declaration of policy in the resolutions to be reported to the general association tomorrow, covering a reduction of the interest charges to be made of banks by the federal reserve board on commodity loans and for abolition of the progressive rediscount rates, was made to the resolutions committee today by Roy O. Young, of Youngsavage, La., sugar planter and banker and chairman of the agricultural committee of the Louisiana Bankers' Association.

about it all of the time. The country banks are much incensed," he continued, "against the Federal Reserve banks because of their policy of forcing par collection from banks which are not members of the system. Personal feelings of the officers of these non-member banks is also a factor in this principle of the Federal Reserve system. The question of collection charges is one thing; the question of proper mobilization of reserves is another and entirely different thing. However resentful country bankers may be on the question of collection charges they are in common with all banks of the country, contribute their fair share towards the expense of maintaining our gold reserves."

Government expenditures of four billion dollars in the first fiscal year were forecasted by Secretary Houston, of the treasury department, today—in an address before the convention, in which he covered a wide range of financial and economic problems of the nation.

The secretary outlined the treasury's program for handling the war effort, liquidation of which, he said, must go on steadily in order that national redemption be accomplished without disturbance to national life.

He pointed out "the strictest economy" not only in our expenditures, federal, state, county and municipal, but also by thrift on the part of our people," adding that the program adequate facilities for your use from year to year is by constructing the buildings in which to house the central office appearing in the larger centers; as well as enlarging existing buildings to serve the increased needs, and this work must be carried on from year to year without delay. This involves hundreds of thousands of dollars, in expense to the Company.

There are, of course, many items of expense, all of which are now at the highest level in prices, and none of which show any sign of reduction for fundamental reasons.

MEDICATED SMOKE DRIVES OUT CATARRH

Pleasant and Easy to Use.

Dr. Blosser is the originator of a certain combination of medicine, herbs, flowers and berries to be smoked in a pipe or ready prepared cigarette which is meeting with unusual success in catarrhal troubles. The smoke-vapor reaches all the air passages of the head, nose and throat. As the disease is carried into these passages with the air you breathe, so the antiseptic, healing vapor of this remedy is carried with the breath directly to the affected parts.

This simple, practical method applies the medicine where sprays, douches, ointments, etc., cannot possibly go. Its effect is soothing and healing, and is entirely harmless, containing no cubes, tobacco, or habit-forming drugs. It is pleasant to use, and not sickening to those who have never smoked. If you are a sufferer from catarrh, asthma, catarrhal deafness, or subject to frequent colds, you should try this remedy without delay.

Any well-stocked drug store can supply Dr. Blosser's Remedy cigarettes or powder for smoking in a pipe, or will order it for you. Satisfactory results guaranteed by a genuine money-back offer.

A trial package will be mailed postpaid to any sufferer for ten cents (coin or stamps) by The Blosser Co., P. O. Box 28, Atlanta, Ga., to prove its effectiveness and remarkable effectiveness.—(adv.)

Buy Correctly Graded Diamonds With Weights and Grades Guaranteed—For Christmas

Deciding upon a dealer without doubt, the most important consideration is the average diamond purchaser.

Nearly all jewelers are thoroughly reliable and honest, but there are many who haven't the ability and experience to properly buy, grade and sell diamonds as they should be sold.

Thirty-three years' experience naturally enables us to grade diamonds scientifically.

We buy them direct from the cutters in large quantities, and save you the profits of the wholesale dealer and jobber.

All grades and weights are marked in plain figures. Grades and weights are guaranteed. We have but one price.

Selections sent anywhere by prepaid express for inspection. Attractive deferred payment plans allowed to those who prefer to buy that way.

Costliest Pets Of Canine World Make Bow Today

From Every Part of Country They Are Arriving in Atlanta for Great Exhibition Here.

Every dog has its day, and Atlanta canines will come into their own today when the annual dog show is opened in the show rooms of the Hanson Motor company, 242-244 Peachtree, by the Atlanta Kennel club, with entrants from many states on exhibition.

There will be dogs galore at the first of the three days session, for canines from many sections of Georgia and other states have been arriving since Monday, and officials stated last night the show this year is much larger and better than those of preceding years.

Judging will start promptly at 2 p. m. today and continue until all dogs are judged. The sporting dogs, bulldogs and bull terriers will be taken first, and judging of these breeds completed today.

Terriers, fox terriers and toy dogs will be judged Friday, while Saturday judging for the best dogs of the different breeds and the awarding of the special prizes will be had.

Society Day.

The second day of the show is society day and many parties are expected on that date for both afternoon and night. Society is much interested in the show and will, no doubt, turn out in large numbers.

The largest entry in the show is Boston terriers, with 106 entries. Alfreddale terriers are a close second with 45 entries. Altogether, there will be 400 entries. The toy breeds are well represented, with 15 entries in Pomeranians and 21 entries in Pekineses.

This show will give the people of Atlanta an opportunity to see some of the finest specimens of toy breeds in the country. An unusual feature of the show is an entry of six toy black and tan terriers. This breed was very popular a number of years ago, but has practically died out, and there is only occasionally that there are any entries at dog shows, so having six of them at this show is a mighty interesting feature.

Big Dogs.

There are also two mastiffs on exhibition, which is a feature that some of the largest shows in the country are not able to put on. This is an old English breed, almost as old as the history of dogs.

While there are many big dogs, certain barks indicate that much dog flesh is put up in small parcels, for example, the prize-winning Pekinese, brought by Miss Egoff, of Pennsylvania.

Enno Meyer, of Cincinnati, the breeder of almost every champion terrier, will arrive early this morning, while Mr. S. J. Duhn, of New Orleans, La., Boston terrier judge, will arrive Friday morning.

Mr. Fowler, representing Spratt's Patent, Ltd., of Newark, N. J., is in the city, and all furnishings will be in readiness this morning.

Many out-of-town visitors have written they are on their way or are coming, and several of the owners, such as Mrs. McGlone, of New York, owner of Mophol Bink, and Mr. Turk McBee, of Greenville, S. C., with his famous bulldogs, are on their way, while Mrs. Gordon Walter, of Detroit, Mich., with her fine little Pekinese, Wei Bol, has already arrived.

A number of the cups and special prizes offered are on display at King Hardware company's show window. The Atlanta Kennel club has offered a memorial cup for Captain Joe Brown Connally, which has to be won three successive years by the same local exhibitor.

Books for Women Voters in Fulton To Remain Closed

No Decision on Poll Tax Yet Made, and Registrar Harris Indicates He May Not Reopen Lists for Months.

Registration books for women will not be reopened by Registrar Lucien Harris, of Fulton county, until he obtains a legal opinion as to whether women are liable for poll tax, according to a statement given out by him Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Harris further stated that he had intended to reopen the books, which he closed Tuesday afternoon, Thursday morning, but found that he could not get the opinion by that time, and furthermore that his force was extremely busy collecting the taxes for 1920, and that it was not necessary to register now to vote next year in any election that may be held.

Mr. Harris stated that in a probability the legislature will throw restrictions around the registering of women just as it has around the registering of men, and that in the event that it does, the women will have to re-register under these regulations, so that it will save both his office force and the women much trouble to wait until after the first of next year to start registering.

"Women cannot vote in the general election of the presidential election, November 2, because they were not enfranchised until after the expiration of the six months' registration period required by Georgia law. The Georgia registration law is not affected by the suffrage amendment except in so far as it denies the right of suffrage on account of sex. In all other particulars it stands without a change."

"No general election will be held in Georgia during the year 1921. The next general election does not come until 1922. Hence it makes no difference where the women are concerned, whether they register now or later. They can vote in the election ensuing six months after the date of their registration. They

Ararat Grotto, the Atlanta lodge of the Mystic Order of Veiled Prophets, is planning to hold a monster reception and ball in the Auditorium at 9 o'clock on the evening of Thursday, October 21, in honor of Dr. Dwight E. Cone, of Fall River, Mass., the grand monarch of the supreme council of the order.

Richard N. Pickett, Jr., monarch of Ararat Grotto, has issued invitations to all blue lodge Masons of the vicinity to be present with their ladies, and give honor to the distinguished Mason who heads the order of Prophets. The affair will be informal, but Prophets are requested to wear their regalia.

Dr. Cone is a knight templar, thirty-second degree Mason, a Shriner, and has held exalted positions in all of the bodies of which he is a member. Since his elevation to the position of grand monarch of the Veiled Prophets at the supreme council meeting at Kansas City, in June, many new grooves have been instituted, and the prospects are bright for a membership of over 100,000 by the time of the next annual meeting.

MUSE KNOCKED DOWN AND ROBBED OF MONEY

Thomas Muse, 41 years of age, of 38 Berean street, was knocked down on Decatur street, between Young and Jackson streets, by two negro men Wednesday night about 9 o'clock and robbed of $15.

A few minutes after he was struck, Muse got up and walking down the street met Officers Doncho and Malone. They came back and near the place where Muse was robbed, a negro was seen, who upon observing the officers began to run. He was stopped by a bullet from Officer Malone's pistol. The wound is not serious. The negro who gave his name as Dock Tribble, will face trial Thursday for robbery.

HAUGDAHL TO USE FIAT AT LAKEWOOD

Thursday's auto races developed engine trouble which set the machine ablaze, from which he narrowly escaped, with his life, Sig Haugdahl, world's dirt track champion, declared last night that the auto is now working wonderfully and will be entered for the speed battles which bring the Southeastern fair to a close at Lakewood Monday and Tuesday.

Although he has used an Essex speed creation for practically all their races, Haugdahl has used that when driving alone, as in time trials. Since there were no dashes he drivers are attempting to arrange with race officials for a few laps on the track on Sunday when they expect to try to record a new Lakewood track record for the mile.

Every other racer who started in the 1955 season at Lakewood announced that he will stay over to compete in the windup events. All of the drivers, including the honorees in the meet by winning the feature and one other event, and the drivers who will start in the two who start and will again pilot the Briscoe special.

MARKETS

Market News and Views

Weekly Weather and Crop Report by Bureau.
Texas—Progress of cotton generally satisfactory and top crop promising in central and north portions; condition unchanged; some open cotton damaged by excessive rains in central portion. Picking ceased in east and central sections, but elsewhere made satisfactory progress; picking stopped in southern half and will advance elsewhere.
Oklahoma—Temperature moderate. Cotton mostly poor to satisfactory progress; top crop making slowly; picking interrupted and open cotton damaged in many sections by heavy rains.
Georgia—Yield of cotton in northern division improved by fine weather; only scattered fields picked practically all open. Alabama—Cotton picking practically finished; north portion; condition unchanged. Mississippi—Light rains showers Friday and Saturday, but west generally favorable for gathering crops. Cotton mostly picked in south and central portions.
Arkansas—Cotton was somewhat damaged in some western localities, but weather was favorable elsewhere for maturing and picking cotton; crop practically all open and no danger of damage except extreme north. South Carolina—Cotton, opening rapidly, with little or no top crop; picking progressing, but there is labor shortage central and north portions.
North Carolina—Progress of cotton very good.
Tennessee—Cotton being gathered in excellent condition, but yield somewhat disappointing.
Florida—Scattered cotton picking; continued dry weather favorable.
Louisiana—Harvest of cotton nearing completion.

Cotton Outlook.
 Clement Curtis—The market looked decidedly better at close, but while it may be that Monday will be a day of recovery, the worst that is ahead, the daily chances in the cotton situation will find the market nervously responsive.
 Logan & Bryan—We feel that the market should do better.
 J. E. Bennett—While trade conditions are improving in the textile industry, the present level for cotton is probably a fair basis, and on dips would buy.
 J. S. Rache—It looks to us as if all the bearish news that possibly could come out is already known, and we feel that cotton should soon present prices will ultimately be a handsome profit.

All that is needed to bring about an upward turn in market is for the south to remain indifferent to present unfavorable outside conditions, which are probably only temporary, and hold its cotton for higher prices.

The southern states are self-supporting, are better off financially than ever before. They have a monopoly on the product.

TWO MEN ARE KILLED IN OLD FAMILY FEUD

J. A. Humphrey Is Instantly Killed—Forrest Wheeler, Atlanta Man, Dies Later.

Sparta, Ga., October 20.—(Special.) A family feud, growing out of a shooting which occurred over a year ago, resulted this morning in the deaths of J. A. Humphrey and Forrest Wheeler. When the two met in the store of A. L. & C. E. Reynolds, a local merchant, this county, and instantly began firing at each other. Three bullets struck Wheeler, while Humphrey was killed almost instantly. The tragedy grew out of a family feud long standing. More than a year ago young Humphrey shot and killed Dan Wheeler, the father of Forrest Wheeler. Humphrey was acquitted. Since then Forrest Wheeler has been in Atlanta most of the time, but about three weeks ago he came home for a visit. No warrant has been sworn out yet, as Wheeler is at the point of death. Wheeler was a meter reader for the Atlanta Gas Works. His residence in Atlanta is at 143 South Forsyth street. Humphrey has been a resident of Mayfield all his life. Both young men are very prominent and each has many friends. The local authorities are watching carefully to stop any further trouble. Wheeler died of his wounds at the hospital.

PATRICK INDICTED ON THIRETEN COUNTS

Cochran, Ga., October 20.—U. S. Patrick, former cashier of the Citizens bank, of this city, who disappeared last March leaving an alleged shortage of more than $22,000, has been indicted on thirteen counts by a Blackley county grand jury. Eleven counts of the indictments cover the issuance of alleged bogus time certificates and the remainder are for money said to have been drawn from Macon banks and charged to the account of the local bank. Patrick's bond has been increased to $37,000.

Patrick recently returned and surrendered to the sheriff of Blackley county, and has been at liberty under bond since that time.

CITIZEN OFFICER AID IN ARRESTING NEGRO

Citizen Policeman W. G. Dobbs last night assisted Officer W. A. McKim in the arrest of a negro, Phillip Barnes, who is believed to be the negro wanted by Macon authorities for the killing of a negro in that city Saturday.

Barnes was pointed out to the policeman by a Macon man, who, upon coming to Atlanta, was taken to the sheriff of Bibb county to be on the lookout for Barnes. The negro will probably soon be returned to Macon for positive identification.
